SKILL DEVELOPMENT

The fundamentals of skating, shooting and passing will be the focus of this clinic. Key teaching points will be reinforced throughout the clinic.

- Well planned drills with limited time standing in lines will increase the number of repetitions
- Game-like situations used in drills
- Flow drills will increase the enjoyment and the opportunity to enhance skills
- Small area games will be played daily to allow direct application of skills taught

CLINIC DIRECTOR

The primary instructor for the Varsity Hockey School is Jim Joseph. Coach Joseph is the head coach of the boy's high school team at Simley.

His 15+ years of coaching experience includes:

- Current Head Coach, Simley Boys HS
 - Team Wisconsin, Tier 1 U-18 coach
 - USA Hockey Select 17 coaching staff
 - WAHA Midget and Bantam Elite coach
 - UW-RF Men's Hockey, assistant coach
 - USA Hockey level 4 certification
 - Athletic Coaching degree from UWRF
- Conference Coach of the Year
State Section Coach of the Year

THIS CLINIC WILL FOCUS ON

- STICKHANDLING SKILLS
- FUNDAMENTALS OF SKATING, SHOOTING AND PASSING
- OFFENSIVE CONCEPTS
- DEFENSIVE CONCEPTS

SMALL AREA GAMES

The benefits of small area games include the promotion of creativity and competition. More importantly they are fun! Small area games allow players the opportunity to enhance individual skills along with some of the basic concepts of offensive and defensive play.

- OFFENSIVE CONCEPTS

- > Creating time and space
- > Better vision and instincts

- DEFENSIVE CONCEPTS

- > Defending another player
- > Basic defensive positioning
